I have really enjoyed not having to answer the telephone for tele-marketers. Please continue this practice as I have better things to do than answer the phone only to tell them not interested and to remove my name, address and phone number from their list. Thank you